Welcome to
Three Rivers Community Players Theater

We continue our 52nd season with:

The Greatest Play Ever Written

A message to our Patrons:

On behalf of everyone at Three Rivers Community Players, we extend our heartfelt gratitude for your unwavering support. Your enthusiasm, generosity, and love for the performing arts make everything we do possible.

Every time you take a seat in our theater, you become part of a shared experience—one that celebrates creativity, storytelling, and the magic of live performance. Your presence brings life to our stage, and your support ensures that we can continue to inspire, entertain, and uplift our community.

Thank you for being an essential part of our theater family. We look forward to welcoming you back for many more unforgettable performances!

With much appreciation, please enjoy our performance of:
